

Website Copy Template for Craft Makers

Every Page You Need and What to Write on It

You don't need a large website. You need a clear one. Here's a fill-in template for each essential page.

Home Page

Headline (10 words max): What you make and who it's for.

Template: "[Adjective] [craft type] made for [customer type] by [your name/studio]."

Example: "Handmade stoneware pottery for everyday kitchens — made in Devon."

Sub-headline: One sentence expanding on the headline.

CTA button: "Shop now" / "See the collection" / "Visit the studio"

About Page

Paragraph 1: What you make and where. (2-3 sentences)

Paragraph 2: Why you make it. Your story or your values. (3-4 sentences)

Paragraph 3: What you want for your customers. (2-3 sentences)

Optional: A photo of you working in your studio.

Product / Shop Page Intro

Template: "Everything here is made by hand in [location]. Each [product] is [how it's made]. Browse the collection below and get in touch if you'd like something made to order."

Individual Product Description

Line 1: What it is and what it's made of.

Line 2: One sentence about the making process.

Line 3: Who it's perfect for or when to use it.

Line 4: Dimensions and care instructions.

Contact Page

Short intro: "Get in touch for orders, commissions, or wholesale enquiries."

Response time: "I reply to all messages within [X] working days."

Alternative: "You can also find me on [Instagram/Facebook]."

Words That Sell

Use concrete language: "made with Somerset clay" is stronger than "handcrafted with care". Be specific about process: "wheel-thrown and wood-fired" says more than "artisanal". Show the human: "I make everything in my garden studio in Yorkshire."
